

Olathe Junior Service League Scholarship Application

Olathe Junior Service League is a women's volunteer service organization which has been involved in the Olathe community for over forty years. Because of our commitment to volunteerism, community service is the most important role in determining our scholarship winners.

OJSL provides 1 scholarship to each of the Olathe High schools. Recipients are determined based mainly on their community service involvement. This is a one-time $1,000.00 scholarship. Scholarship money will be paid directly to the school upon receiving enrollment documentation from the student.

Required Elements for this Application:
