

Get Schooled

at the 1st Annual Falcon Football *FUN*damentals

Moms' Clinic

Time to fess up, ladies!

Have you ever been guilty of cheering from the stands under the pretense that you knew what was going on? Ever been at a loss for words when someone asks you what position your son plays? Tired of rehashing the game with the guys and getting the “eye roll”?

Now's your chance to get schooled and Huddle up with Kerra Bowers, the Pocket Book Coach, to find everything you need - to not only endure football, but to enjoy your time around the gridiron! Kerra Bowers was a once clueless coach's wife, mother of three boys, and educator who figured out and understands what it takes for women to truly get football!

Join us for the Moms' Football Clinic and learn to talk football with confidence before the first game. Your “getting-it” is more important to your son than you might think! And for Moms who already know the game, join us anyway, just for FUN! Maybe you'll learn something new.

Date: Friday, June 25, 2010

Time: 6:30 to 9:00 pm

Location: Wil Jenny's

Cost: $20.00

Watch for Part II – Show what you know!

On the field clinic with Coach Gourley and your player at a later date.

Cost includes: T-shirt, food and non-alcoholic beverages

Space is limited – Please register by June 12th

*Presented by MOOS & the Falcon Football Booster Club

Sponsored by MHG, INC.